The first mention of Celtic as a degree subject in class catalogues in session 1906-1907 when the three following students took Celtic courses as their degree (or as part of their degree).

N.B. the following lists are of students that enrolled in these classes at the start of each academic year, not evidence that they actually attended. The actual number of students who completed the assessment on these courses seems to have been considerably smaller.

The following information is drawn from the 'Matriculations database of male students, 1904-1911' (held at Glasgow University Archive services) unless otherwise indicated.

<sup>4</sup> Donald Macdonald, born in Stornoway, Lewis, 17 October 1882, graduated M.A. in 1909. He was the son of Norman Macdonald, crofter, of 14 Cross, Ness, Isle of Lewis. Donald had completed one year of study before the start of 1907-1908 when this information was compiled. His term time address at the time of his matriculation was 28 Dowanhill Street, Partick. The Register of Members of the General Council of the University of Glasgow records him in 1912 as still being a student and resident at Cross, Ness. GUA DC 183/11/39. His sister, Christina, attended the Celtic class as a single class enrolment student, in session 1910-1911 (see below).

<sup>5</sup> John Macdougall, born 9 July 1883, graduated M.A., 1909. He was 24 years old at the start of session 1907-1908, and had already completed three sessions. His subjects of study are named as Latin, Celtic and English literature. He was born in Easdale, Argyll, and his father, Neil, was a slate quarrier. His home address is given as Achabalvicar, by Oban, Argyllshire. His term address was 299 New City Road, Glasgow. Two John Macdougalls are given in the members' register of the General Council of the University of Glasgow for 1912, both with an M.A. from 1909. One of these was resident at Oban the other at Glasgow. GUA DC 183/11/39.

<sup>6</sup> Donald Malcolm Macdonald was born in Stornoway, Lewis, and was 25 years old at the time of this matriculation, 1907-1908. He was the son of John Macdonald, tailor & clothier. He had already completed one year of study by the time of this matriculation when he enrolled to study History and Celtic. He gave his home address as Mackenzie House, Garnethill, Glasgow, and his present address as 84 Buccleuch Street, Garnethill. He appears in the prize list for Celtic in 1910-11, having been made proxime accesserunt to the first prize. University of Glasgow Calendar, 1910-11, page 564 (GUAS Sen 10/51). Macdonald have been the only one of these students, who took an exam or who passed from the 1907-08 session ('Pass lists in Celtic,' Roinn na Ceiltis).

<sup>7</sup> Farquhar Matheson was aged 26 at the start of session 1907-1908, his second year of study, when he intended to study Logic and Celtic. He was the son of Ewen Matheson, farmer, Plockton, Wester Ross. He gave his home address as 19 Harbour St. Plockton, Ross-shire. His term address was 106 Buccleuch Street.

<sup>8</sup> There is no record of Mary A. McLaine on the 'University story' site. According to the matriculation albums she was aged 21 at the time of enrolment, 1907-08, and had been born in Glasgow. Her father, Neil, still living, was a joiner. Her address (home and term) is given as 15 Rutland Street, off Paisley Road. Mary enrolled for Mathematics and Celtic classes in session 1907-08, her first year at University. She had progressed to the Higher class in Celtic by session 1910-11 and she won the class prize for her performance (sharing this with John M. Maclennan). GUA R8/5/28/10. GUA R8/5/31/10. Mary McLaine was secretary of An Comann Oiseanach, 1908-09. GUA Sen 10/50, GU Calendar (1908), p. 755. GUAS Sen 10/53, G.U. Cal., 1911-12, p. 590. Mary Anne took classes in English, Latin, French, Logic, Maths, as well as Celtic during the course of her studies, October 1906 to October 1911, and yet although she won a prize at Celtic, she seems to have left the University without graduating (Abandoned student files, 'Mary Anne McLaine, Glasgow,' GUAS, R6/58). She appears to have been the first female president of An Comann Oiseanach, referred to as such in a reunion in 1938. Glasgow Herald, 18 February 1938, page 12.

George Thomson, now of 32 Tong, and son of Alexander Thomson, Free Church Elder, joined the Worcestershire regiment. He was awarded the Military Cross for gallantry at Salonica (Greece) – his citation stated “ He was wounded early in the attack, but receiving first aid rejoined his platoon and re-organised it under heavy fire, He only withdrew on being wounded a second time” (the latter wound was a serious one in the chest; the earlier wounds were in the head and arm.).
